 www.tothe92.co.uk Brentford community stadium, lionel road, london, england telephone: Rugby team and is at the heart of plans to regenerate the area. Campus community activity days west ... 4/9/2015 How Easy Was The Ground to Get To (from the station, by car, etc) Went on the train. You can see the ground as you pull into the station as its just around the corner. So close. I was out of the ground and on the train home at 5pm and ...
 Official Club Website: www.shotsweb.co.uk Brief Directions by Road: M25 junction 12 and onto the M3 and onto Junction 4. Take the A331, signposted Aldershot. After around 4 or 5 miles look out for the A323 signposted Aldershot and take the slip road onto a roundabout. Turn right onto the A323 signposted Aldershot South and Town Centre. Straight over a set of traffic lights and you will pass Manor Park open space on your left. Pass under the railway bridge and you will find the ground just past this bridge on the right. Thanks to Aldershot FC for assistance with these directions. Car Parking: There is a limited space car parking area at the ground and you will have no chance of a space unless you arrive at least an hour before kick off. Follow the directions as above and after the railway bridge turn right at the next roundabout into Ordinance Road. Turn first right for the car park. Alternatively there are numerous inexpensive 'pay and displays' just a minutes drive/5 minutes walk away in the Town Centre. Directions by Train: Aldershot Train Station is approximately 15 minutes "around the houses" walk from the ground. The ground itself can be seen from the station platform and therefore it is easy to find. The station is served by South West Trains and is on the main line to London Waterloo. Trains normally run every half an hour and the journey is only 45 minutes. Supporters Coaches: Barnet FC will be running a coach to every way first team game this season. The 2013-14 Travel Club is now open for fans to join by a monthly fee system or one off individual booking. Monthly Travel Club Memberships cost £38 for Adults, £30 for Concessions & Juniors and just £20 for U10s. As a member of the Bees' Travel Club, the club guarantee your seat on every trip of the season. All the coaches are stewarded and will depart from The Hive and return to The Hive immediately after the match. Coach will leave at 4.45pm sharp. For further information on the Bees Travel Club, please call the ticket office on 020 8381 3800 and select option two or visit The Hive in person. Eating and Drinking Locally: My favourite pub in the area is The Royal Staff 37A Mount Pleasant Road, Aldershot GU12 4NW. It has never failed to serve a great pint and very good football evening food. It is only a 10 minute walk to the ground too and a warm welcome awaits. Another safe bet is the Crimea Inn which is only a short walk away from the stadium (on the corner of the High Street and Crimea Road). Ground Description: The ground is situated in a public park. The Main North Stand built in 1938, which is a converted terrace, occupies the whole of one side. The South stand opposite dating from 1929 was the original main stand until control was relinquished when seating was installed in the North Stand and new dressing rooms and offices added behind it in 1970. It straddles the half way line and includes the clubs corporate facilities. To the left is the very imposing East Bank which has a vast old fashioned barrel roof over terracing. Every ground should have an end like this! We will be allocated the South East Corner of this terrace and The Bill Warren seats situated in the South Stand. Admission Prices: Adult Seating £19, Standing £17 - Concession Seating £15, Standing £13 - Junior Seating £7, Standing £5. Our Last Meetings & Memories: Two 1-0 defeats were the tally last season in League 2. A rare Carl Hoddle goal grabbed the Bees a 1-0 victory at the Recreation Ground in New Year 1992 and stopped us all getting hypothermia. Reckless City's Emirates FA Cup campaign gets underway this afternoon as the Bantams travel 227 miles to the EBB Stadium to face Aldershot Town. We have put together an Away Day Guide to help our supporters with the long journey ahead... STADIUM ADDRESS The EBB Stadium Aldershot Town FC The High Street Aldershot Hampshire GU11 1TW THE GROUND Opened in 1926. The EBB Stadium, also known as the Recreation Ground, has the capacity of 7,100 (2,136 seated). Supporters will be located in the East Bank Terrace. This comprises 212 covered seated places which are available in the South Stand and space for a further 1,320 standing supporters in the East Bank Terrace and a portion of open terrace extending around to the South Stand. GETTING THERE BY ROAD... From the North, via the M25, exit the M3 at junction 4. Follow signs towards Aldershot on the A331 and take the exit signposted A323 Aldershot and Woking. At the roundabout, take the third exit towards Aldershot, go straight on through the two sets of traffic lights and across two mini-roundabouts towards the town. The EBB Stadium is on your right, just past the railway bridge. From the South, exit the M3 at junction 5, signposted Hook, and take the fourth exit off the roundabout to follow the A287 towards Farnham. At the traffic lights, turn left into Hale and then at the bottom of the hill turn left onto the A325. Take the first exit off the next mini roundabout and then the third exit onto the A323 towards Aldershot Town Centre. Driving past Tesco on your left, take the second exit off the next roundabout and follow the road through three sets of traffic lights and across two roundabouts. The EBB Stadium will be on your left. From the East, via the M25, exit the A3 just past Guildford onto the A31 Hog's Back. Take the exit signposted Aldershot A331 and then the third exit from the roundabout. Approx 1/2 mile on, take the A323 Aldershot and Woking junction and the first exit from the roundabout. Go straight on through the two sets of traffic lights and across two mini-roundabouts towards the town. The EBB Stadium is on your right, just past the railway bridge. From the West, exit the M4 at junction 11, taking the A33 exit towards Basingstoke and Alton. At Heckfield Heath, turn left onto the B3011 The Causeway and follow signs to Hartley Wintney. Turn left onto the A30 London Road and then right at the next roundabout onto A323 Fleet Road. Continue on the A323 across the double roundabout at Elvetham Heath onto Reading Road North. Cross the junction with Fleet Road (past the Oatsheaf pub on your right) and then at the next traffic lights turn left onto A323 Aldershot Road. At the end, turn right onto Norris Hill Road and at the Ively Road roundabout take the third exit onto Fleet Road. Keep left onto Clubhouse Road and then, with the Church of St Michael and St George in the far left corner, turn right at the traffic lights onto Queens Avenue. Continue forward onto Hospital Hill and at the bottom turn left. Continue across two roundabouts and the EBB Stadium will be on your left. By Train... Aldershot is as little as 49 minutes from London Waterloo, with direct connections also made from Woking, Ascot and Guildford. The EBB Stadium is a five-minute walk from Aldershot Train Station. Leave the station by the main entrance, towards the bus station, and turn right into Windsor Way. Pass Holy Trinity Church on your left and follow the road as it bends left. Turn right at the junction with Victoria Road and the EBB Stadium is in front of you. To reach the away turnstiles, turn right under the railway bridge and then left up Redan Road. To plan your train journey, visit www.nationalrail.co.uk. By Bus... Aldershot Bus Station is immediately adjacent to the Train Station (directions above), with Stagecoach services running from most local towns to either the Station itself or one of three stops within 2 minutes of the EBB Stadium. To plan your journey, visit www.stagecoachbus.com. PARKING Parking is available in the Parsons Barracks Car Park, immediately adjacent to the EBB Stadium off Ordnance Road, as well as the town centre multi-storey car park on Wellington Avenue, which is a five-minute walk from the EBB Stadium. A limited amount of street parking is available around the stadium. For supporters using the away entrance to the EBB Stadium at the top of Redan Road, there is also limited street parking off the mini-roundabout outside the La Fontaine pub, on Holly Road, Windmill Road and Mount Pleasant Road. TICKETS Admission prices are as follows: SEATING / STANDING Adults: £20 / £18 Concessions: £16 / £14 Under-16s: £7 / £5 Aldershot have announced that active military personnel will be able to save up to 50% on admission prices. Concession tickets cover over-65s, young adults aged 17 to 21, students and active members of the Armed Forces. ID will be required at the turnstiles. Supporters can pay on the gate. Please note: The away turnstiles are located at the opposite end of the ground to the High Street. They are accessed from Redan Road and are a good ten minute walk up hill from the High Street. As you go past the La Fontaine pub on your right then further up on the left is a pathway (look for the Away Supporters Sign) leading through a small park and then down to the visiting fans entrance. The only access to away supporters permitted via the front entrance is for disabled supporters who now have two dedicated wheelchair bays in the away seats. Please enquire with the club for more information. ENTERTAINMENT & REFRESHMENTS The Pubs... Around the corner from where the La Fontaine pub was and not far from the away supporter's entrance path to the ground, is a Fullers pub called the Royal Staff on Mount Pleasant Road. For fans coming in by train, or those walking down into the town from the away entrance, then the Crimea Inn is only a short walk away from the stadium (on the corner of the High Street and Crimea Road) and is popular with the away support, as well as The Beehive on the same road. Further down the High Street is the Wetherspoon outlet. Otherwise, the ground is just a short walk away from Aldershot Town Centre where there are plenty of pubs to be found. Food... A range of restaurants, including Nandos, Pizza Express, Frankie & Benny's, Prezzo, Harvester and Mimosa, are located at the Westgate Leisure Park. The park also includes a Morrisons supermarket, Cineworld cinema and Travelodge hotel. Inside The Ground... Refreshments are provided via a mobile catering unit, selling the usual fayre of Cheeseburgers (E4), Jumbo Hot Dogs (E3.50) and Chips (E2). Advertisement block
